STATE MISSIONS

C. F. Swander, Secretary

S-wanderings

Oct. 30, at Klamath Falls. Church undergoing repairs. An evening communion service for those who could not be present in the morning. A. C. Bates, pastor . . . Nov. 9, at Salem with Guy Drill. It was "Swander Day" and the state secretary was a guest — guest speaker at morning service, dinner guest at a church luncheon, house guest at the Drills, guest speaker at young people's meeting, a guest in the pew at evening service. The "guest" idea included his family. Enjoyment beyond bounds . . . Nov. 11, at Ontario. Evening sermon, a mortgage burning, fellowship, refreshments, a board meeting . . . Nov. 12, at Nyssa with a baby church. A husky infant. Getting ready to house the church. J. S. Beem ministers to them . . . Nov. 16, at Community Church of Christ in morning, F. Elmo Robinson, pastor. A beautiful communion service, after which we brought the message . . . In afternoon at Home for the Aged in Beaverton with a gospel message. It is a pleasure to preach to them . . . Nov. 18, at Dallas in meeting of Investments Committee of the Permanent Fund. Planning to loan money. Met new pastor, W. C. Rhea. Welcome to Oregon . . . Nov. 23, at Turner where Gene Robinson pastors. A scriptural Church, they had their offering ready "that there be no offerings when I come." It exceeded their quota, too . . . A visit to the Old People's Home at Turner with the saints of God . . . In evening at Englewood Church in Portland, Alton Brostrom, pastor. Gave evening message and installed their newly elected officers. Two surprises here: First, a public presentation of a car robe to the secretary in appreciation of his 33 years of secretarial service; second, a fellowship with the elders in the home of Brother Van Winkle at which they put in words the appreciation voiced in the gift of the robe. It makes one feel humble, but it is nice to see the flowers, and hear the words, before one dies. We appreciate the Englewood church.

The State Evangelist

B. Ross Evans' meeting at Elgin, Glen Ballard, pastor, resulted in 13 confessions, 3 statements and 3 reconsecrations. He is now at Wasco in meeting.

OREGON MISSIONARY TIDINGS

Mrs. E. F. Leake, Secretary

MISSIONARY ORGANIZATIONS

Meeting the Emergency

One looks at our world today and sees swift and tremendous changes taking place. "Movement" is the word used to describe it. Others have said that it is the end of an age—tomorrow will bring a new world. And in such a day, what of the Church? Is she alone of all world forces to be still? What of our own churches? While the world is in birth pangs of a new age shall they be still? The answer is the Emergency Million and Christian Education Advance.

The Emergency Million is the answer of our brotherhood to this challenge. Emergency Million seeks to undergird the world-wide reach of the Church so that it may hold in time of storm. It seeks to push out into places of need and make her witness felt. It seeks to perform a humanitarian service in the alleviation of human suffering. It seeks to look ahead and stay the Church when the reactions from this great war shall sweep across our nation like a great tidal wave. We do not know what form that reaction will take, but it will be more tremendous than anything the Church has yet faced.

The Emergency Million will reach Oregon in January. Our quota is $13,800. This must come from those of us who are faithful to the Lord's table on the Lord's Day, from those who are consecrated. We expect Oregon to oversubscribe her quota.

Another answer of Protestantism in America to this challenge is the UNITED CHRISTIAN EDUCATION ADVANCE in which we will join with 40 other protestant bodies in a concerted effort to turn back the tide of paganism and wipe out spiritual illiteracy in America. Has your church enrolled? It matters not how much our leaders plan—the answer comes from each local church. The plan will be as strong as its weakest link. The links are the local churches across the nation. Enroll your church and go to work at once. The Advance begins January 1, 1942. Our aim should be—Every Church of Christ in Oregon Enrolled for Action by January 1, 1942.

Medford District School

The last of our District Schools will be held at Medford, December 5, with Mrs. Julia Gregory, District Secretary, in charge. Mrs. Dallas Rice, Yakima Indian Mission, is the missionary speaker. A team of state officers will also be present.

Quarterly Reports

Attention women! December is the time for quarterly reports and mid-year check-up on the work. Oregon women have been faithful in sending their quarterly reports, almost 100%, but the first quarter's reports showed a decrease in offerings as compared with the level of last year's giving. We hope all will understand that we must maintain last year's level of giving if the Emergency Million is to achieve its objective. Failure to maintain it will only create another emergency. We cannot meet it by taking money out of one pocket and putting it in another. A report of offerings to Unified Promotion from missionary organizations in Oregon from July 1 to October 31 is as follows:

Undesignated and Specific Gifts: 1940-41, $1,496.73; 1941-42, $1,263.94.

Designated Gifts: 1940-41, $130.70; 1941-42, $45.14.

A New Society

Under the able and consecrated leadership of the Hendricks' a new society has been formed at Yamhill, and we are happy to welcome this group. The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Elsie Barger; Vice President, Mrs. Robert Shulke; Secretary, Mrs. W. D. Pierson; Treasurer, Mrs. Charles Teagarden.

Women's Councils have recently been formed at Salem and Hood River.

Christmas Lists

The Yakima Indian Mission Christmas list may be had by addressing either Mrs. Leake at Hood River, or Mrs. H. W. Torgerson, 9003 N. St. Louis St., Portland.

Gifts for China

The desperately needed articles for China are arriving safely at their destination. A letter from Edna Whipple Gish tells of a conversation with Mrs. McCallum in which Mr. McCallum had written of the arrival of 26 cases in Nanking. He almost got bombed in getting them, but all ended well. If your group would like to send a love gift to some of our staff over there entirely apart from the other work of relief write to Mrs. Leake. By "staff" is meant the pastor, Bible women, and teachers in Ginling College and the children.

Key Women

Following is a list of women who are designated as our "Key Women." They are making a special study of the fields to which they have been assigned and

PREACHERS' SALARIES

A survey of salaries in our Oregon churches reveals an average annual salary of $1618 for full time resident pastors. The lowest is $720, the highest is $4000. In computing this we have added to the cash salary the rental value of the parsonage where one is furnished. Those above the average may be called good, but those below certainly are poor.

There is one encouraging fact—churches are waking up to the fact that an increase is necessary. 33 churches have given a raise in 1941. Many factors determine what a salary should be—the minister's preparation and experience, the size of his family, the numerical and financial strength of the church, the cost of living which is different in different communities. These must all be taken into account. If a man would do his best work his mind must be free from anxiety about what shall be tomorrow. Every preacher is entitled to an adequate compensation. "Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn," was used by Paul to illustrate the need for preacher support.

Church officers, sit down with your pastor and talk over with him his financial needs. Then give him such an increase as will permit him to meet them and free him from restraint. By way of suggestion we would say that in general every church should lift the salary as far toward the average as possible. Those receiving now above the average could well use a modest increase, too. We hope that 1942 shall not pass away until EVERY church has increased its pastor's salary. Next issue we shall deal with student salaries.

TOWARD CALVARY

This is the name of the brotherhood program of personal enrichment and soul-winning from February 18 to Easter Sunday, April 5. A helpful manual for the use of ministers and their helpers in preparing for, and carrying on, this campaign has been prepared by the Home Missions Department. It is available from this office. It would be a kindness if you enclose 4½ cents in stamps.

NORTHWEST CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

K. E. Burke, President

The Emergency Drive Is On

Northwest Christian College must not be forgotten. Here are the reasons why: First, 218 consecrated young men and women from your congregations have enrolled in the college to prepare to serve the church. They can be educated if the college succeeds financially, and the college is dependent upon you for its financial life.

Second, 130 young people have graduated from Northwest Christian College the past eight years. 108 of them are in specialized active Christian service as preachers, evangelists, missionaries, pastors' assistants, chaplains in the army, in benevolent work, Bible School teachers, etc. The other 22 are serving as laymen, many of them in important places of lay services. They are serving because someone cared enough to provide finances to run the college. Your generous gifts now will help to train and send out others to like service.

Third, churches are asking for preachers. There is a shortage in our brotherhood now. This calls for a real effort to train men. Northwest Christian College is trying to meet this emergency by recruiting and training worthy ministers of the Gospel. Help with your prayers and finances NOW. There will be no missions, home, state or foreign, if we fail in our training program. Give the college due consideration in your giving as individuals and as a church.

Fourth, a valuable college property awaits payments to make it the property of a great brotherhood. $10,000 has been paid on the property debt, $55,000 remains to be paid. The sooner this is paid off the sooner we can get additional necessary buildings. On February 1, 1942, we must pay another $8,000.

Field Representative Called

Kenneth Johnston has been called by the Executive Committee to serve as Field Representative for the college. Mr. Johnston is a young man of splendid talents. He has had marked success in the business world as a salesman and landscape architect, and also in the Christian world as an able preacher and pastor. His ability in this field has been demonstrated by the Fall Creek Church which he brought into being and in fostering its growth until a church house was provided for the congregation. Mr. Johnston is 29 years of age, is married and has three children. Before coming to school he was an active member of the Bakersfield, California, Christian Church. He has held offices of prominence in California Christian Endeavor. Mr. Johnston will begin his work with the college the first of the year.

Special Events

Some interesting special services for December are as follows: Tuesday, December 9, the Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Fiscus and Mrs. Knott, will present a chapel service. Thursday, December 11, Dr. Walter Myers, of the N. B. A., will be guest speaker for the chapel hour. The Music Department, under direction of Maude Skaggs Woodyard, voice instructor, will have charge of the chapel service Tuesday, December 16. The closing chapel service for the fall term will be held on Thursday, December 18 with a worship service conducted by the students. Chapel services are held each Tuesday and Thursday at 3 P. M. College friends are invited. The "All School Holiday Dinner" will be held on Monday night, December 8, and the Christmas play on Wednesday night, December 17.

Vacations

Students left the college campus deserted during the Thanksgiving vacation which extended from Thursday through Sunday. The Christmas vacation extends from December 20 to January 4. All classes begin regular schedule January 5.

But we still lack $21.22 of meeting the November 30, 1940 record. We have five days yet to go. We are hoping. Our needs are greater; more money is in circulation; opportunities are opening before us; we must not fail Christ.

NINETY AND NINE NEWS

Ray C. Smith, Secretary

State President's Paragraph

It is a pleasure to report that since last serving as state president three years ago the work of the men in Oregon has manifested a decided increase. There is a broader vision of the possibilities that lie within the reach of all Christian men, and a greater personal interest in the one big job of SOUL SAVING. Our financial program is seven times greater than it was three years ago, and there is need for it to be still larger. With several thousand real MEN backing up the program of the Ninety and Nine, the task of giving out the gospel of Christ, which is the most marvelous of all news, will advance steadily. Thank you for your cooperation.—Dr. C. R. Beatty, President.

Evangelistic Challenge

"And Lo! I am with you always," is one of our Lord's conditional promises. It is conditioned upon our fulfillment of the Great Commission which He had just uttered, "Go—teach—preach."

This is the marching order for his church; no church has an excuse for existence which does not have a definite program of evangelism.

The harvest is ripe—the time is now—the lamps of Europe have gone out—the flame burns low at home—plans and devices of men have failed—social confusion—economic confusion—personal confusion—the world is hungry for a better way—it is the way of God as revealed through His son—we must not fail!—W. W. White, Ninety and Nine Evangelist.

Gospel Teams

It is the desire of the Evangelistic Committee that local men's groups over the state call upon the committee whenever they need help in putting on a spiritual service. We ask that you set your dates far enough ahead so that plans can be made and a gospel team assembled. Your committee is very well pleased with the way men are rallying to the call of Christ to serve him in this way. By the way, have you organized your gospel team yet? The Lord needs workers in His vineyard. Won't you respond?—Cleve Hudson, Director Gospel Team Work.

Climbing Mt. Budget

Edwin P. Dewees, State Treasurer

For the first six weeks of the 1941-42 fiscal year the books show cash received as follows: From districts, $191.50; offerings in Evans' October meetings and the convention, $156.85; sale of supplies, $6.11; a total of $354.46. District goals for the state budget which have been accepted as of November 24, are as follows: Douglas, $100; Eastern Oregon, $175; Yamhill, $125; Willamette, $600; Northwest, $600.

From 106 personal pledges totalling $575.50 we have received $58.00. These pledge cards, and all others signed hereafter, are to be kept on file by the local secretary or treasurer, who will forward funds as he receives them, to the district treasurer. Thence the money will be sent to the State Treasurer as formerly. Any pledges received directly by the state office will be credited to the district and church from which they are sent.

This fact should be kept in mind—the pledge of the individual covers the local, district, and state work. Local and district projects should not be curtailed to meet the state budget; rather, all Ninety and Niners should stand ready to share in the increased opportunities for real victories for Christ.

State Executive Meeting

The Executive Committee meeting was held in Salem First Church on Sunday, November 23, with 26 men representing five districts and all of the state committees being present. Districts were represented by the following officers: Northwest by Clair Martin and Art Bailey; Willamette by Charles Davis and C. G. Parke; Coos Bay by Fenner Travis and Harold Stone; Yamhill by Clifford Dobbins; McKenzie by Vic Hershizer and Willett Jessee.

The Boys' Work Committee, having met earlier in the day, presented a proposal to conduct four boy's camps this summer—two at Turner, one at Anthony Lake in Eastern Oregon, and one at Fir Point in Southern Oregon. Howard Cole will act as dean of the Turner camps, and Vernon Kullowatz will direct the other two. The committee also announced a plan to try out a "Ninety and Nine Boys" program in the Northwest District.

Martin Kullowatz, chairman of the Evangelistic Committee, reported more calls for the services of Willie White than could be cared for, but as the money comes in further assistance can be given to a number of smaller churches. Brother White is now in a meeting at Stayton with Bruce Caldwell, and begins a meeting at Myrtle Creek in December. His first meeting as Ninety and Nine evangelist will be in January at Creswell.

The Executive Committee voiced its approval of the work of Northwest Christian College and recommended the hearty support of all Ninety and Niners to this project. The flag pole furnished by the Mill City men, to be erected at the Turner Campgrounds, will be painted and placed in working order under the direction of Charles Davis, President of Willamette District.

A Correction

Under the heading, "State Officers and Committees," in the November issue of the OREGON CHRISTIAN the names of the state pastor-advisers were given as state vice-presidents. This was an error and the vice-presidents are as follows: NORTH, Martin Kullowatz, Portland; SOUTH, Harold Stone, Myrtle Point; EAST, E. O. Draper, La Grande.

Here and There

The men of Multnomah Church met on November 17 for their first local church men's rally with about 30 men in attendance. Evangelist C. C. Curtis brought a stirring message on "God's Men," and a male chorus furnished several songs under the direction of Virgil Byers. Martin Kullowatz was chairman and the following men were chosen to head the work: Wilbur Abbott, President; Harold Davis, Vice President; Rex Nichols, Secretary; Warner Rieder, Treasurer. Elery Parrish is the active and popular minister.

Wm. Siefke, pastor adviser for the Southern division, and Willett Jessee, Secretary of McKenzie district, attended a rally at Bend in November and report a good meeting with men from Redmond and Sisters in attendance. A. C. Bates, of Klamath Falls, brought an inspiring message.

Kern Park Ninety and Niners have "put on" and varnished about 2,000 feet of plywood in the "tabernacle annex" thus completing a long needed improvement. The annual men's banquet and program was held on Friday, the 21st. 60 men present, a fine feed, and a good program. No charge is made for this event but every man in the church is expected to bring an outsider.

The Willamette District Rally is postponed from December 22 until January.

Coos Bay District rally was held at Coquille Nov. 18 with 35 men present.

Douglas County rally at Glide; fine interest and a good program. Brother Beard, a teacher in Roseburg schools, was the speaker.

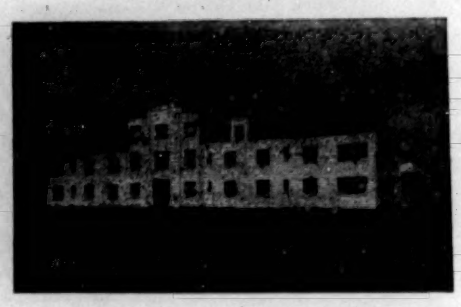
About 100 Yamhill County men met at Willamina in November, electing new officers as follows: President, Clifford Dobbins, Amity; Vice President, John Abderhalden, Willamina; Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Teagarden, Yamhill.

Mallory Avenue will have a ham-and-egg breakfast on November 30. A men's Bible class has been started.

A Visit from Longman

C. W. Longman, Director of Leadership Training, paid this office a visit on November 21. He attended our Young People's Conference party also. We appreciate every visit from the national staff. Come oftener and stay longer.

NORTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN HOME



Mrs. Laura K. Hill, Supt.

Why Be Thankful

Mrs. Jennie Plummer, of Northwestern Christian Home, is one of those whose statement was included in a symposium on "Why Be Thankful This Year," which was published in the Christian Standard of November 19.

Our Movie Keeps Busy

The colored moving picture of Northwestern Christian Home has been in circulation in Washington during the past two months while Walter Myers has been in California. He returns to Oregon early in December and will keep the movie busy in Oregon for a few weeks. It has met with much commendation for its interest and the quality of the pictures.

Kern Park Leads Again

When C. H. Addleman, pastor at Kern Park, came to conduct Sunday afternoon service at Northwestern Christian Home not long ago a large delegation from the church accompanied him and brought 400 quarts of canned goods for our use. Many other groups have visited and brought, or sent, things recently. Dayton, Monmouth, Hood River Valley and St. Helens, are among those represented by visiting groups. Included in the welcome contributions have been a quantity of nuts from Monmouth and canned tomatoes from Walla Walla.

Mrs. Hill Visits Corvallis

Our superintendent, Mrs. Hill, visited the November meeting of the women in Corvallis Church to tell them of Northwestern Christian Home and its work.

Mrs. Vernon Helps

Mrs. Clara Stivers Vernon, who has been assisting in Northwestern Christian Home this fall, will continue through the Christmas season.

Annuity Rates Changed

Announcement is published that agencies handling annuities will on January 1 lower annuity payment rates one-half per cent on new annuities issued after that date. This will not affect payments on annuities issued prior to January 1. The National Benevolent Association is one of the agencies sharing in this announcement.

Bequests Promise Elevator

From some bequests resources have been made available to install the much needed elevator in Northwestern Christian Home. Just when the elevator will be ready for service is unpredictable but we look forward to the time.

Calendars in Demand

There have been many requests for the 1942 calendar picturing our benevolent homes. One should hang in every church.

More About Christmas Offerings

December is the most important month of the year for our Home because the Christmas offering is the one special offering of the year for its support. There are both "white gifts" and cash offerings. In "white gifts" can be brought things produced or already possessed by the donors. When one must buy a "white gift" it is better to put the money into the cash offering. The superintendent can buy to better advantage than donors, and at the same time save on transportation.

With sincere appreciation for all the support that has made possible the work of the closing year all associated with the Home extend to you greetings and best wishes for the New Year.

With the Children

This year all the groups are taking the White Swan Christian Indian Mission as their special project. The Mission is ably superintended by Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Rice.

In the District Schools Mrs. Rice told this story of a happening at the Mission. A little Indian girl came into the kitchen with tears streaming down her face. "What is the matter? Are you ill?" asked the cook.

The little girl did not answer, but just cried harder. Finally the cook sat down, taking the little girl in her arms. Drawing her close she questioned, "Dear, did someone hurt you? Please tell me what is the matter."

The little girl looked up in the cook's face and said, "I just felt like I wanted someone to love me. I knew if I cried you would put your arms around me. So I stuck my fingers in my eyes till it hurt badly."

There are other children in the Mission who are hungry for love. Christmas is a time for loving and sharing. Would it not be a happy experience for the children's groups in the state to have a Christmas party for them? The party should be held early in December so the gifts may arrive at White Swan in time. If you will write me I will send you a list of things that would make acceptable gifts. Address, Mrs. Laura Torgerson, 9003 No. St. Louis St., Portland.
